Steps in a Journey—Beginning in May

Eleanor Marfisi wrote about her growing up years in the Italian neighborhood of St. Louis. As a child, for Christmas, she set her heart on a special dress she had seen in the window. But instead of that dress, she received another one. Her mother, seeing her disappointment, placed her hands on her shoulders and said: "Eleanor, I want you to remember this: "Fine feathers do not make the bird." Then she pointed to her heart and her head and said, "These are the most important things in life, - a heart that leads you to love and a head that enables you to know the one you love."

The Second Vatican Council declared in its document, Lumen Gentium that "all are called to union with Christ ... to sanctity", the "Perfection of charity", and the "fullness of the Christian life." Since everyone is called to be perfect and to grow in love and knowledge of God, then, contemplative prayer, which embraces such knowledge and love should be the goal of everyone. St. Teresa of Avila writes, "God gives Himself in this way to those who give up all for him. He shows no partiality. He loves everyone. Nobody has any excuse, no matter how miserable they may be, since the Lord so acts with me in bringing me to such a state."

Our parish is well on the Journey to Love of the Blessed Trinity, with Perpetual Adoration, daily Mass attendance, and Community gatherings. We are offering a course on the Spiritual Life – "Steps in a Journey", exploring spiritual writers, contemplative prayer, faith and grace, love of the Trinity and the Catholic Church.

Led by Kathy Moore, we will meet Wednesday mornings 10:00 to noon, and Thursday evenings 7:00 to 9:00.

If you have already submitted your pledge directly to the Archdiocese, we will include your name in the list once we receive notification from the Archdiocese. If you are new to the parish and did not receive the mailing from the archdiocese, please call the parish office so we can send you the information and pledge envelope.

Remember you can spread your payment over a period of 10 months. [July through April]. Contributions received after April will be credited to the new Campaign.

Please remember to credit your contribution to St. Mary Anacortes.

Thank you.
